A Foundation in Wisdom

"From where did this wisdom come to me, a wisdom which was not in me?"

-St. Patrick's Confessions (cf. Matthew 13:54)

Thank you to all who joined us for our first informational meeting this past Saturday! We are glad to have introduced the beautiful school building, campus, and garden at St. Francis of Assisi and we are so inspired by everyone's enthusiasm for our vision!

For those who were unable to attend, please find some of the highlights below:

What is a classical education?

- Trivium: Grammar, Logic, Rhetoric
 - Great Books and Good Books
- Socratic Method: drawing each student into the ethos of the classroom
 - Human Experience: a sanctuary free from tech-culture
- Primary Sources: less textbooks, more Aesop, Lewis, and Tocqueville

What is a Catholic education?

- Daily Mass
- Liturgical Integration (Feast Day food and customs!)
 - Writings of the Saints
- Popular Piety and authentic Catholicism

Tangibility: the Incarnational approach to wonder

- Montessori inspiration for younger grades
- Field trips to beauty
- Gardening and garden-to-table culinary arts
